

THIS MONTH WE'RE LOVING...

Learn About Music from Freddie the Frog

Books, flashcards and the cutest frog hand puppet – named Freddie, of course – teach kids all about music notes in a fun and interactive way. Follow Freddie through a series of adventures and learn about musical sounds such as the Thump in the Night, the Bass Clef Monster and the Mysterious Wahooooo. Available at Borders and at Barnes and Noble.

The Perfect Place for the Tooth Fairy

Stress the Seams can customize these adorable Tooth Fairy pockets with an extra little pocket to slip the lost tooth into while you wait for the Tooth Fairy. $8.50 each, etsy.com/shop/StressTheSeams.

Special offer: 10 percent off with the code KNOXMOM for the entire months of January and February 2011.

Perfectly Imperfect Dolls

Sidhe Kalas and her 16-year-old daughter Naomi (she makes the Omy dolls) create lovable dolls like "Tucker," pictured here, and available for $7.50. The dolls are born with mismatched eyes and oddball features, but they're ready to cuddle. Make them yours! If you're looking for a custom doll, perhaps with extra sparkles or glitter, contact Sidhe, who will create one just for you. Suitable for ages 5 and up, afterliferejects.etsy.com.

Cozy up for Story Time

Story Time is back at the Knoxville Zoo this winter. It's held in the zoo's Log Cabin at 10:30 a.m. each Wednesday and Friday through February. Hear a fun story and, if you're lucky, perhaps you'll meet a special animal visitor! Free with paid zoo admission or membership.
